Caz Drunk on Schnapple and Such

By Bryce • Apr 17th, 2009 • Category: FOOD AND TRAVEL

It's casually drunk Friday again! You know what that means:)

Ashley and Rie are pouring Chambord, Lana is opening her newest vibrating FedEx box, the music is getting louder, and the rest of the crew is searching for mixers.

Today's genius idea, however, was brought to us by Snapple. The lovely folks at Snapple sent us some Raspberry Tea and Strawberry Kiwi. Holy macaroni, effing delish when spiked with Chambord. Today's Casually Drunk Friday is a nod to college days past, when wearing identical outfits and doing stupid things with friends was considered run of the mill.

Obviously we all dressed up in our Revenge Is... Saving the Earth tshirts while getting all silly with Snapple and such. Aside from us being ridiculous, I wear mine all the time. It's made of 50% RPET (recycled plastic bottles) and 50% ORGANIC COTTON! Seriously, these t's with powerful sociopolitical messages have quickly become my fave line, with or without Snapple and Chambord. For $32, you can't go wrong.

This amazing Earth Day tshirt can be found here.

twitter.com/snapple ...check it, they're giving away free tix to the tribeca film festypool!
